Description Level: Fonds
Material Details: Books
Date Range: 1864-2014

Scope and Content:

Collection consists of city directories, which usually contain an alphabetic listing of people's last names giving their occupation and home address, and of street names. The directories may also contain advertisements of local area businesses and brief facts on population and average household income.

County directories include sections for each municipality with an alphabetical list of owners or tenants.
