

History in the Making

Baseball game in Victoria Park, Kitchener, Ontario

<https://makinghistory.kpl.org/en/permalink/descriptions9969>

Description Level: Item
Creator: Kitchener Waterloo Record, Photographer
Accession Number: P009310
Material Details: Photographs
Physical Description: 24.6 cm (W) X 19.4 cm (H)
25.3 cm (W) X 20.2 cm (H) with mat/border
Date Range: [ca. August 1947?]
Date of Publication: 1947-08
Scope and Content:

Black and white reprint of a baseball game in Victoria Park, Kitchener, Ontario. The umpire and catcher are in the foreground as runner heads for home plate.

Storage Location: PB3
Name Access: Kitchener Waterloo Record
Subject Access: Baseball players
Victoria Park (Kitchener, Ont.)
Baseball - Tournaments
Place: Kitchener, Ontario, Canada
Geographic Access: Kitchener, Ontario

Notes: Five-thousand, seven-hundred and four fans filled seats and spilled round the outfield for the 3rd game of the series in Victoria Park. The two teams went 16 innings in 90 degree heat. The game ended in an 8-5 decision for London.

The image is from the Kitchener-Waterloo Record Photo Collection, Special Collections and Archives, University of Waterloo.

Copyright Status: Public domain: Copyright has expired according to Canadian law. No restrictions on use.
Reproductions: For copies of this image, please contact Special Collections and Archives, University of Waterloo.
Source Organization: Kitchener Public Library
Collection: Photograph Collection

Images

