

Beaumont, George J.

Lieutenant.

Served with E. Lancashire Regiment, B.E.F.
Died of wounds in France January 24, 1917.
His father lives in Kitchener.

At the time of his death he was Bombing
Instructor at 31 Divisional School of Instruction.

He went overseas with the Queen's Own
Rifles of Toronto and to Egypt with the 11th Battery. He also served at the Somme.
He was buried with military honors in the British Cemetery at Varesmnes.

Please see additional information file for
Beaumont, George J.