

CAMPBELL, JOHN JAMES .  Lieutenant,

 Enlisted April 1916 with 67 th University Battery Took first draft of 50 from Toronto University Battery to England and was transferred to B.E.F.
Anglican.

Born January 16, 1890 in North Dumfries on his father's farm, Educated at Riverside School and Galt Collegiate Institute. Graduated from the University of Toronto as Bachelor of Applied Science. Was in the employ of Chipman & Power at the time of enlistment putting in waterworks and sewage at Burlington. Unmarried.

He was killed in action October 26, 1917 at Passchendaele after serving in eight battles-Regina French Oct. 1916; Vimy Ridge Apr. 1917; Atleaux April 1917; Fesna May 1917; La Coulotte
July 1917; Avien July 1917; Hill 70 August 1917; Passchendaele Oct. 1917.

Was slightly wounded Oct 21, 1917 but remained of duty. Awarded Military Cross October 25, 1917.
He was out with two signallers, one was killed, the other wounded. He carried the wounded man over a mile of shell hole district on his back under heavy fire to a place of safety, although he himself was suffering from a wounded hand, His father, Mr. John Campbell, 42 Rose St., Galt, received his military cross last August.

Helen Elliott,
27 Rose St.,
Galt.