

Parker, William John.

Signaller.

Enlisted April 5, 1916 with IIIrd South Waterloo Battalion and transferred to 10th Batt. B.E.F. Methodist.

Born in Fergus Dec. 21, 1893 educated at Preston School and at Galt Collegiate Institute. Single. He was in England from October 1916 to May 1917 studying to be a signaller. He went to France in May and was in action until he was killed August 15, 1917 at Hill 70. As he was going back to the communication trench he was hit in the neck and side by shrapnel and the wound proved fatal.

His next of kin is Margaret A. Parker, Preston, Ontario.

In two days' fighting previous to his death he kept up communications so well during the hard fighting that his superior officer recommended him for bravery.
