

WILLIS, JAMES.

Private.

Enlisted May 13, 1916 with 118 th Battalion
Infantry. He transferred later to 1 st Canadian Battalion.

Presbyterian.

Born January 10, 1876 on the second Concession of Howie and educated at Fordwich. He was married to Mary A. Bell and has four children.

He was killed December 6, 1917 at Passchendaele
by an explosion of small shell.

His widow, Mrs. Mary Willis, lives at 34 Simeon
St., Kitchener.

Ruby Willis,

34 Simeon St.,

Kitchener.